Contents

Why Consider Opposing Viewpoints? 11
Introduction 14

Chapter 1: Are Sexually Transmitted Diseases a Serious Problem?
Chapter Preface 19
1. STDs Are a Serious Problem 21
   Lisa Kaiser
2. Fears of STDs Are Exaggerated 27
   Grant Stoddard
3. HIV Is a Serious Problem for Gay Men 36
   Carol Midgley
4. The HIV Problem for Gay Men Is Distorted 43
   Tony Valenzuela
5. The Impact of HIV and AIDS on Africa 54
   Avert
6. The AIDS Epidemic in Africa Is Overestimated 72
   Craig Timberg
7. Syphilis Is a Growing Threat 77
   T. Hesketh, X.J. Ye, and W.X. Zhu

Periodical and Internet Sources Bibliography 88

Chapter 2: How Should Students Be Educated About Sexually Transmitted Diseases?
Chapter Preface 90
1. Abstinence-Only Education Is Effective 92
   American College of Pediatricians
2. Abstinence-Only Education Is Ineffective 100
   Cory Richards
Chapter 3: How Can the Spread of Sexually Transmitted Diseases Be Reduced?

Chapter Preface

1. Virginity Pledges Have No Impact on STD Rates Among Youths
   Ceci Connolly

2. Virginity Pledges Reduce STD Rates Among Youths
   Robert Rector and Kirk Johnson

3. Condoms Protect Against STDs
   Judith Reichman

4. Senior Citizens Should Use Condoms to Prevent STDs
   Deborah Kotz

5. Condoms Do Not Protect Fully Against Some STDs
   Heather Corinna

6. Routine STD Testing and Treatment Can Reduce the Spread of HIV
   Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Periodical and Internet Sources Bibliography
Chapter 4: How Should the Global AIDS Crisis Be Addressed?

Chapter Preface 173

1. US Global AIDS Policy Is Effective
   United States President’s Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR) 175

2. US Global AIDS Policy Is Ineffective
   Simon Reid-Henry 182

3. Opt-Out HIV Testing Presents Legal and Ethical Issues
   Catherine Hanssens 188

4. Mandatory HIV Testing Will Save Lives
   Sanford F. Kuvin 196

5. The Experimental HIV Vaccine Is Promising
   Gautam Naik 201

6. An HIV Vaccine Is Unnecessary
   Mike Adams 207

Periodical and Internet Sources Bibliography 212

For Further Discussion 213

Organizations to Contact 215

Bibliography of Books 221

Index 225